

Philippine Airlines Name Correction Policy

Passengers traveling via Philippines Airlines are allowed to make changes in the name of the ticket up to 24 hours before the flight's scheduled departure. Along with that, some information is mandatory for the passengers to know before they proceed to make changes to their flight ticket details. Here, we are going to provide all the details regarding the Philippine Airlines Name correction policy. Those details might be beneficial for the passengers in case any mistake has been made in their flight tickets. So, read the article further to know more about Philippine Airlines Name Change Policy.

Am I allowed Philippine Airlines Change Name in my Flight Tickets

In case of any correction requirement in your name in the Philippines Airlines ticket, or any other legal procedure due to which there are changes made in your name, minor corrections are allowed for the passengers to make in their flight tickets. While some flights allow altering the name of the passengers, some restrict it.

Basic Prerequisite you need to know before you proceed for Philippine Airlines Change Name

Passengers need to keep in mind certain terms and conditions as per the Philippines Airlines name correction policy. Below we have stated the name correction policy for Philippines Airlines:

- There is a certain fare amount that you need to pay while making changes in your name on the Philippines Airlines Tickets.
- You need to show the original documents supporting your reason for the request for a name change in airline tickets. Legal documents can be marriage, divorce certificate, or other legal document which supports your claim.
- In case of a name change due to marriage, the airlines allow the passengers to travel under their maiden name if they are traveling on their honeymoon or have married while they are away.
- The name that you have submitted must exactly match the passport or the government-issued photo identity which displays your name.
- Timing is everything! So make sure that you have requested the name sometime prior to the flight's scheduled departure, i.e., at least 24 hours before.
- For the name correction, you need to keep in mind that only three characters can be changed. Requests for these minor corrections are subject to airline penalty and other fares.
- No name change request will be accepted in case of an interline flight segment.

What type of correction Am I Allowed to make as per the Philippines Airlines Name Change Policy?

The following changes are allowed for the passengers to make in their Airline Ticket:

- Spelling correction in which you can add or delete the missing letter in your name.
- Make changes in your Maiden Name on the flight tickets,
- Use your pet/preferred name on the condition that it should be specified in your passport.
- Transpose of your name if you have included your full name in the air ticket.
- Gender correction

Last Name Correction Philippines Airlines

In the case of the correction required for the last name change, a new PNR will be created. Passengers need to note that only three characters will be allowed to change their last names. In case of more than three characters, you need to connect with the customer services of the airline, where a new ticket will be issued with no change in other travel details like date/time or any others. Passengers need to pay the required fare for the name change.

Can I Add my Last Name to the Philippines Airlines Ticket

Passengers can request a last name in their Philippines Airlines. For that, they need to show the required documents, which will display their full name, including the last name which they have requested to add. A new ticket with the same PNR will be issued with no further changes in the travel details like date and time. The last name addition in the Philippines Airlines ticket is subject to change fee along with the applicable fare difference.

Philippines Airlines Name Change for Inverted Name

The request for the inverted name will be considered the same as the name correction. Passengers would need to pay applicable charges and the fare difference. A ticket with the same PNR will be issued with no other changes.

I Need to Add/Remove a suffix/prefix from my Philippines Airlines Tickets

In order to add or remove a prefix or suffix in your name, you need to connect with Philippines Airlines. The officials will issue you a new ticket on which the fare difference will be applicable.

Philippines Name Correction Policy Basic Eligibility Criteria

Passengers need to fulfill the following criteria in order to apply for any name change request:

- The flight segments for which the passengers have tickets must be operated by Philippines Airlines only.
- After the name change, only one ticket will be issued per passenger. Further requests for name correction will be considered as the airline penalty and can also cause fare increases.
- Only the name change request is acceptable as per the Philippines Airlines Travel policy. Apart from that, no further changes like date/time are allowed.
- In the middle of the trip, a request for minor name correction needs to be approved only by the airlines on the condition that the name must match the name on the passport or the government-issued photo identity.
- In the case of both the name change and gender change requests, you need to make them separately.
- For changes in the DOB, it will be considered the same as the name change request will all the rules and regulations applicable to the Philippines Name Change Policy.
- Only one correction is permitted per passenger at once. Further changes will be made as per the Philippines Airlines Name Change policy.

How to Change Name in Philippine Airlines Ticket

Passengers can make changes to their Philippines Air Ticket either from the official website of the airline or they can connect with customer services. The process to make changes in your name in the Philippines Air ticket is listed below:

Philippines Airlines Ticket Name correction through the official website

You need to visit the official website of the Philippines Airlines, after which you need to follow the given steps:

- On the homepage of Philippines Airlines' official website, you can find the option "Manage Booking."
- Afterward, you need to provide the details for the flight on which you are boarding. Those details include the Booking Reference Number and the passenger's Last Name.
- Now, you can see the list of flights booked under your account. Select the one for which you need to make the correction.
- Follow further instructions to make changes to your Flight Tickets. Along with that, you need to provide the details of the document, which displays your correct name.
- You might have to pay the required fare for your name change.
- Once your details have been updated, you will be notified through mail and an SMS on your registered mobile number.

Other options to Change Name in Philippine Airlines Ticket

Passengers can also make corrections to their flight tickets by connecting with Philippines Airlines' customer services. From the official website, you can find the customer service number based on your location, on which the official will address your query. Make sure you have all the required details of your flight tickets. Once your name has been updated, you will receive a confirmation in your mail and SMS.

You can also visit the airport at the Philippines Airlines Help Desk for name correction. However, this option is applicable to the business class, not the economic ones.

Charges for Name Change in Philippines Airlines

Passengers need to pay an additional fee which varies from USD 200-400 based on the class of your travel and the mode from which you are requesting the name change. The Fee details for the Philippines Airlines name correction are listed below:

- For Economy class, the fare for a name change will be USD 200 if done through online mode; otherwise, it will be USD 225 when requested by phone.

- For the business class, the name change fare in Philippines Airlines will be USD 300 through the website and 325 from the phone call.
- The name change fee, if done directly from the airport, will be USD 400.

Connect with Flightaura

Passengers can connect with Flightaura in order to get information or assistance regarding their flight reservations for any airline. At Flightaura, either you can connect with the official that is available 24/7 to help, or you can find various readable sources that have listed all the travel-related policies and rules and regulations for different airlines worldwide.

Along with assistance with flight-related queries, you can also find the details regarding the suitable flight based on your preferences from different airlines, all on a single platform. Here you can select the right one and confirm your reservation instantly based on the availability of seats on that flight. So in case of any travel-related query, connect with Flightaura.

On an Ending Note

In the above blog post, we have listed all the required information you need to know regarding the Philippines Name Correction Policy. Make sure you request for name change/correction within the given time, i.e., 24 hours prior to the flight scheduled departure. Now, in the case of further assistance, you can connect with us through the number or use the live chat option to connect with us instantly.